

5 September 2024

Erasmus+ Program

Learning Mobility for Higher Education Student and Staff

The College of Arts, Media and Technology together with the University of Florence are pleased to announce the results of the shortlisted candidates for the interview stage of the Erasmus Mundus + Capacity Building Program at the University of Florence in Italy. The candidates have been selected based on evaluation scores from the committee and ranked according to their scores from the first round of selection.

1. Miss Janyapon Saingam Selected
2. Miss Manipar Plungplub Selected
3. Mr. Athinan Tangchiamsri (Reserve No. 1)
4. Mr. Patcharapong Thitwong (Reserve No. 2)

Selected candidates, please submit the following documents;

1. Copy of passport
2. Copy of student ID card

You can send the documents via email to orawit.t@cmu.ac.th or deliver documents to the Innovative Research and Computational Science Lab, 1st floor, Building Block C, College of Arts, Media and Technology, Chiang Mai University. The deadline is Friday, September 6th, by 4:30 PM.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, consisting of a stylized loop followed by a long horizontal stroke.

Asst. Prof. Orawit Thinnukool, Ph.D.
Program coordinator/ Acting of the Dean
to International Collaboration and Fundraising